

Minutes to September 24, 2024 POHPC Meeting

Commissioners Present: Diane Marmon, Jerry Marmon, Steve Roemen and Chair Rick Cook
Absent: Evan Kramer

Meeting called to order by Chair Cook at 9:32 am.
Chairman Rick Cook is acting Secretary

1. Old city jail nomination to the National Historic Registry. Chairman Rick Cook reported he is continuing work with SHPO representative Val Ballestrem to complete the nomination form, Cook is gathering more info and history for Ballestrem. Chairman Cook reported no Public Hearing needed but Ballestrem recommenced a public program or promotion once jail is placed on the national registry.
2. Historic Reconnaissance Level Survey of the Hamlet. Chairman Rick Cook reported, the commission will need City Council approval for applying for a CLG Grant. Diana Marmon reported, her and Jerry will contact contractor George Kramer.
3. Collaboration with Siletz on new historic interpretive panels for Port Orford. Chairman Cook reported he was in contact with Steve Lawton, the Ko-Kwel Tribe and Siletz. No forward action on project at this point in time.
4. Chairman Cook, under new business, reported he had talked with Matt Hall, editor of the Port Orford News, in regards to submitting historic articles to the paper. Matt Hall was in favor of the idea.
5. Steve Roemen, under new business, said he would talk with the Port Orford Christian Center in regards to installing a commemorative Lindberg marker on the Lindberg lot the Christian Center now owns.

Meeting adjourned at 10:24 am.