 Task 1 Build your home inventory Follow these easy steps to get started: Step 1: Take photos of each room in your home. Pay close attention to what's on walls, in closets, and don't forget storage spaces. Step 2: Write a brief description of each item. Note the make, model, price, and other details that might help when filing a claim. Tip: Try to group similar items together when taking pictures. Save time with the Home Inventory Apps! Mobile apps can make creating your home inventory easier. Download mobile apps to start building your personal property list.	 Task 2 Make copies of financial documents Gather important financial documents together: - Passports, social security cards, birth certificates - Bank and loan documents - Insurance policies - Titles - Tax returns - Will and power of attorney - Pet records Once all documents are collected, make copies or scan them to your computer. Store them on a flash drive, in the cloud, or in one folder. Store them off-site, or put them with your go-bag. Tip: Use our disaster preparedness checklist to organize your documents	 Task 3 Review your insurance coverage Take time at least once a year to review your insurance coverage. Meet with your insurance agent and make sure you have the right coverage in place to meet your needs. - Discuss any upgrades or changes made to the home - Confirm your deductibles and policy limits - Make sure all the information is still accurate Not sure where to start? 2.10.040 Terms; vacancies At its first meeting the Commission shall choose the terms of office of said all seven members, whether present or not, by lot as follows: The names shall be placed on strips of paper and the strips placed in a hat. The first name drawn will be position One. The second name drawn shall be position two. And so on. Position One shall serve for one year; Position Two for two years; Position Three for three years; and so on until all positions are given a term of years. Council Liaison shall immediately thereafter notify the mayor and city council, in writing, of such allotment. At the expiration of the initial terms of each member, the successor to the vacancy shall hold office for four years, so that the terms are staggered, with at least one position being subject to reappointment each year thereafter. Any vacancy shall be filled by the mayor subject to approval by the Common Council for the unexpired portion of that term.

2.10.050 Election of chairman and vice-chairman The Commission, at its first meeting, shall elect a chairman and vice-chairman from their members, and said chairman and vice-chairman shall hold office during the pleasure of the commission.
